Release of Rights

We live in a world full of rights. Our particular culture is one where we take pride in our rights. As a matter of fact, the rights of individuals are constitutional but as we see the demanding of individual rights increase, we see much of the moral fiber of our society decrease. Our Lord Jesus Christ laid down his rights to the heavens, all His glory, to become a man and to serve, not to be served. (Phil. 2:5-11 and Mark 10:45) We ask you to consider laying down your rights on this mission trip. Not to lay them down for better or for worse, but to entrust them to the Lord. These rights may seem reasonable but on a short-term mission trip could cause dissension. Would you make time to search your heart and willingness to surrender your rights to the Lord?

I GIVE UP MY RIGHT TO:

A comfortable bed
Having three meals a day
Having familiar food
Dressing fashionably
Seeing results
Control of myself
Control of others
Control of circumstances

Having pleasant circumstances
Making decisions
Taking up offense
Being successful
Being understood
Being heard
Being right

I ENTRUST TO GOD:

My strength and endurance
My health and strength
My likes and dislikes of food
My security in Him
His purposes and fruit in His timing
My need for His Spirit control
His workmanship in others
My circumstances to His purposes in making me Christ-like
Privilege of suffering for His sake
His sovereign hand on my life
My deepest needs
My security in His love
My reputation
My need for recognition
My need for His righteousness

I give God permission to do anything He wishes to me, with me, in me or through me that would glorify Him.
