Text: 2 Corinthians 3:1-3

Our Letter of Recommendation

for full audio and more resources visit www.centralpresb.org

Why does Paul talk about his weaknesses?

The _____ does not do anything for anybody; it is _____ who changes lives.

Spurgeon said, “it is not your hold of Christ that saves you—it is _____.”

Paul’s letter of recommendation was not a letter, but it was _____.

What is more permanent, that written on stone or that written on the heart?

Why is our weakness so important?

Questions for Reflection/Discussion:

What things have you held onto, other than Christ for your salvation?

Why has God chosen to use the routine, daily and even mundane lives of those who had been saved rather than signs and wonders to influence the world with the Gospel?

List some examples when you were a conspicuous Christian.

The message written on the heart does not nullify the message written in stone, it fulfills it. What does this mean in daily life?
