Christians should expect to be the _____ and the _____ people in the community.

When Paul wrote to Titus, the most important thing for evangelize Crete was _____, after that it was _____.

How many Epistles in the New Testament did Paul write?

What types of things did Paul “endure?”

What are the weapons of righteousness?

At what is Christian warfare aimed?

Where do we find the fortresses?

Questions for Reflection/Discussion:

How have you experienced or seen Christians be both loved and hated?

Select three classic doctrines of the Christian faith. How do they lead a believer to a virtuous life?

How have you endured in your faith and under what trials?

We are assaulting ideologies. We don't embrace the culture we confront the culture. We bring sinners the truth. We expose their error. What is necessary for these tactics to be successful?
