

Central Presbyterian Church - Sunday, July 12, 2020

Text: 2 Corinthians 7:2-16

“Grieved Unto Repentance”

for full audio and more resources visit www.centralpresb.org

What are the two different attitudes in repentance?

1.

2.

Charles Spurgeon said, “Your eyes now filled with _____ shall weep no longer. You shall gaze in indescribable _____ upon the _____ of Him who sits upon the throne.”

What are the three good uses of grief in Scripture?

1.

2.

3.

In what areas do we find joy in godly sorrow?

1.

2.

3.

4.

Grief Resources

A Grief Observed by C. S. Lewis is a collection of reflections on the experience of bereavement following the death of his wife, Joy in 1960.

Nicholas Wolterstorff's Lament for a Son: where we find the phrase, "Come sit beside me on my mourning bench."

The collection of four little booklets from Stephen Ministry on mourning after the loss of a loved on.

When God Weeps by Joni Eareckson Tada, "Suffering is the vocation of every man, and it is important for us to know how and why the Lord uses tragedy to mature us as Christians."

O Love That Will Not Let Me Go: Facing Death with Courageous Confidence in God by Nancy Guthrie

Fear Not: Death and the Afterlife from a Christian Perspective by Ligon Duncan

Surprised by Suffering by R. C. Sproul

Don't Waste your Cancer by John Piper

My Prayer Today: