Paul’s opponents see in Paul someone they are _____ superior to.

Paul does not _____ his opponents.

In my _____ I am always looking for people that I compare _____ against.

The _____ is never to compare themselves to the _____.

Hypocrisy is not revealed not in the desire to _____ sin, but in the
_____ to _____ it in ourselves.

The only standard we are given in scripture is the _____ standard set of
_____.

Reflection/Discussion Questions

How have you seen the comparison game played out in your life?

Why were the Corinthian opponents trying to cancel Paul?

What are the dangers of comparing ourselves to the world around us?

How should Christians respond to unfair criticism?

Fair criticism?
