Text: 2 Corinthians 13:5

“Examine Yourselves”

for full audio and more resources visit www.centralpresb.org

The examination of our faith in 2 Corinthians 13 refers to the _____ body of Christian doctrine not how I feel about my faith.

In examining my faith it might be encouraging to find:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Martin Luther used the word antinomian to refer to those who wanted all the _____ of salvation without any of the _____.

In Matthew 7 Jesus says, “I never knew you” to a certain group. Why does He do so?

How is it possible that non-believers (professors only) could be evangelists?

Reflection/Discussion Questions

List 5 things you do that give evidence of your faith in Christ. How are these actions different from a non-believer doing the same things?

Read Matthew 13:24-30. If, in accord with the teachings of Jesus, there will be “tares amongst the wheat” should we be concerned about having false professors within the church? What should we do?

Give ten points you would point to in your own life that give evidence of true faith.
