

Central Presbyterian Church - Sunday, March 21, 2021

Text: Romans 12:9-10

“Let Love Be Genuine”

for full audio and more resources visit www.centralpresb.org

The Christian life is an _____ way of living.

The call of holiness is to _____.

In 1 Corinthians 13 we find the classic math equation _____.

Love is to be _____.

Christian freedom requires _____.

To love, as God requires means we must also _____.

Love always makes the distinction between _____ and _____.

Augustine said, “the Church is a _____ where sick sinners get well.”

Reflection/Discussion Questions

Read Romans 12:9-21. List all the marks of a true Christian you can find.

Read 1 Corinthians 13. Why do so many focus on the gifts when the priority is love? (Hint: who do the gifts focus on and who does love focus on?)

What passes for evil in society today?

Can a true believer not hate sin and still be faithful to Christ? How or how not?

My Prayer Today: