The things of this _____ are never to be loved more than the
_____.

The word kosmos as used in 1 John 2 refers to the combined _____,
_____ and _____ of the worldly.

The “lust of the flesh” is anything that panders to my _____ or feeds my sinful
_____ that lead me away from the Lord.

What did C.S. Lewis called the “lust of the eyes?”

The pride of life is everything that appeals to _____ and
_____.

What does pride lead to?

What is David’s plea to the Lord?

Reflection/Discussion Questions

John talks of “love” in our passage as a value or appetite. With this in mind, what are your loves?

Read James 1:14-15. How have you seen this progression of sin in your own actions?

What has come into your mind through the lust of the eyes that you are unable to forget?

Does your pride keep you from thinking you could fall into or be affected by habitual sin?
